

Dr. Phinnize Fisher Named 2011 SC Superintendent of Year by Peers

Greenville County School Superintendent Dr. Phinnize J. Fisher has been named 2011 South Carolina Superintendent of the Year by the South Carolina Association of School Administrators. Next year she will compete for National Superintendent of the Year. Dr. Fisher joined the District in 1996 as Assistant Superintendent with more than 20 years experience beginning in the classroom. She was named Superintendent of the largest District in the state in 2004. Selection of the National Superintendent of the Year is based on leadership for learning, communication skills, professionalism and community involvement.
