

South Carolina State Convention will be a Donnybrook

The South Carolina State Convention is going to be a Donnybrook! While I do NOT expect, and do NOT condone intimidation, violence, and subversively disturbing the peaceful and orderly flow of discussion and debate, I can assure you that PATRIOT voices WILL be heard in Columbia at our State Convention. PATRIOTS are on the move and our voices will NOT be silenced.

If Drew McKissick thinks for one minute that he can "weaponize" Robert's Rules of Order to control the Republican Party State Convention narrative, drown out the voices of conservative PATRIOTS, and tamp down the overwhelming DEVOTION that we have to the principles found in the Republican Party Platform, he is grossly mistaken and the State Chair of fantasyland.

My advice to McKissick would be to let "Wethe People" speak and simply get out of the way and let South Carolina political history take her course.

Why? If this movement is of God, no one will be able to harness and control its power. The POWER of the PATRIOT resolve comes from a love of GOD-FAMILY-CHURCH-COUNTRY.

If, on the other hand, this cause is wrapped up in the evil machinations of mankind where self-aggrandizement and self-promotion take center stage (a secular approach), it will fizzle out in the long run and render itself (the cause) inoperable.

I am "putting in" with the lot of the former because the concerned and Godly citizens of South Carolina have decided to say enough is enough, rise up, and kick the socialists and the liberal faction within our own Republican party out the door on their backside. In other words, don't let the door hit you in the backside on your way out!

Leatherman, Rankin, Senn, Lindsey Graham, and DREW MCKISSICK- we are coming after your authority to lead our state. Your politics disgust us.

Your time is short in the political realm.....start planning for a different career.... in the long term.

You can finesse us with your professional political operative "insider trading" and "capital distribution" in the short term (protecting RINOLAND), however, in the long-term conservative PATRIOTS have the knack of sniffing out the rats among us.

True PATRIOTS just have a real hard time with lukewarmness.

LET FREEDOM RING!
